Population vs. Sample

A Researcher studies the average income of families in a city by surveying 100 households.

Population : All the families in the city

Sample : 100 households that were surveyed